
CHAPTER III.

RIDE ON THE RAILROAD.

I WAS pleased when it was announced, in accordance with the projected programme of the entertainment of our party on the Isthmus, that we were to take an early departure from that plague-spot, Aspinwall. That disease and premature death were endemic in that region of swamp and vegetable rottenness, was quite evident without any minute investigation

THE NEWBERRY LIBRARY map coll. G981.88 [p.673(Pr-Ct)